ProfileRelaunch Ltd — Paid-service agreement for Relaunch Guard

22 October 2026

This agreement is between ProfileRelaunch Ltd (company number 17520826), a company registered in England and Wales and incorporated on 14 October 2026, whose registered office is 71–75 Shelton Street, Covent Garden, London, WC2H 9JQ, United Kingdom, trading as ProfileRelaunch ("we", "us"), and the business named in the quotation that accepts this agreement ("you"). Notices to us under this agreement go to contact@profilerelaunch.com.

1. Formation

A contract for the service named in this agreement is formed only when we have given you a quotation that names that service, the Business Profile or review, and the price, and you have accepted that quotation and this agreement.

Using the website, sending an enquiry, or reading a published price does not accept this agreement and does not create a contract. The website terms govern use of the website. They are not this agreement. For this service, this agreement and the accepted quotation prevail if they conflict with the website terms.

This agreement applies only to a quotation you accept with it. It does not change an agreement you have already accepted. We may withdraw a quotation that you have not yet accepted.

2. Authority

The person who accepts the quotation does so for you. You confirm that you are obtaining the service for the purposes of your business, and that the person accepting is authorised to bind you and to instruct us about the Business Profile and reviews named in the quotation. You will tell us promptly if that authority ends.

If, despite that confirmation, you are contracting as a consumer, nothing in this agreement removes a right that the law does not allow us to exclude or limit.

3. The service

The service under this agreement is Relaunch Guard for each location named in the accepted quotation. We provide only that monitoring service.

Our team carries out the checks manually, twice each day, including weekends and bank holidays, using a Europe/London schedule, and we email you if a check needs your attention.

The checks are planned observations. They are not a promise of continuous monitoring, of a response within a stated number of minutes, or that a suspension or a review will be prevented.

If we cannot complete a scheduled check, we retry, record what happened, and tell you if it stays incomplete. If the access this service needs is lost, we ask you to restore it and we pause billing for the coverage we cannot provide. If no working way to alert you remains, we pause the service and the billing. A phone number you have given us may be used only to resolve a failed email. We check a replacement email address before we use it.

We are independent of Google. We do not control Google's systems, decisions or timescales.

4. Price and when monitoring starts

The price is £9.99 per month per location named in the accepted quotation, unless that quotation states a different price.

Monitoring for a location starts only after you have accepted this quotation for that location, we have confirmed the access we asked for, and we have completed the initial check. Sending a setup form does not start monitoring and does not take payment.

Accepting this quotation does not start monitoring and does not take payment.

We are not registered for VAT. We do not add VAT while that remains the case. This is not a statement that a supply is zero-rated or exempt.

The price on the accepted quotation is the price for this order, including a discount we have already agreed in writing for this order. The price is in pounds sterling (GBP). That pound amount is our agreed fee. If you pay from an account in another currency, your bank or payment provider may convert it or charge its own fee. We do not set or guarantee that rate.

If tax on a supply to you has to be confirmed before payment, we will tell you that treatment and the amount before you pay.

5. Included period, cancellation and a later case

After a Managed Profile Recovery that has already met its own agreed outcome, you can choose 30 days of Relaunch Guard for the restored location at no extra charge. The 30 days start when monitoring is activated. We will remind you before the period ends. Continuing at the monthly price in this agreement is your choice. We will not automatically start charging you. The 20% reduction below does not apply during those 30 days.

Contact us to cancel. There is no cancellation fee. Normally, monitoring continues until the end of your paid month and does not renew. If you ask us to stop immediately, we return the unused portion of that month.

While you are paying the monthly price for a location, you receive 20% off the standard fee for an eligible new Managed Profile Recovery or Managed Review Protection case at that location. The issue must arise during that paid monitoring. A problem that already existed when monitoring started is excluded. The reduction does not apply during the included 30 days, to Guided support, to the monitoring fee, or to a custom or bulk quotation, and it cannot be combined with another offer. Once we agree a reduced fee for a case, cancelling monitoring does not remove that reduction. That later case is a separate quotation, and its fee still depends on the outcome agreed in that quotation.

We will not charge a higher monthly price unless we have given you at least 30 days' notice of that price and the date it would apply, and you have agreed to it. If you do not agree, monitoring ends before that date. We will not start the higher price automatically.

6. Your responsibilities

You will give us accurate information about the business, the profile and the reviews named in the quotation, and the access this service needs.

Where this service needs access to a Business Profile, you add us as a Manager for this service only. You remain the owner. We do not change the profile unless you separately approve that change. We do not ask for your Google password or access to your email account.

You will not ask us to do anything unlawful. You confirm that you are entitled to instruct us about the profile and reviews named in the quotation. You will read a deliverable within a reasonable time and tell us about an error you could reasonably be expected to notice.

You remain responsible for your Business Profile, for what you publish, and for the decisions you take after we have explained a recommendation.

7. Our responsibilities

We will perform the checks described in this agreement with reasonable care and skill and email you if a check needs your attention.

We may use trained staff and contractors. We remain responsible to you for this service.

We may refuse or stop a check that we reasonably believe would be unlawful or would mislead Google or the public.

8. Confidentiality and personal information

Each of us will keep the other's confidential information confidential and use it only to perform or receive the service, to administer the contract, or where the law requires. Information is not confidential if it is public through no fault of the party receiving it, or if that party already knew it free of a duty of confidence.

Our privacy notice explains how we handle personal information. The notice does not replace this clause.

9. Intellectual property

We keep the intellectual property in our methods, templates and know-how. You keep the intellectual property in the information and materials you supply.

When you have paid the fees due for a deliverable, you may use that deliverable for your own business. You may not resell our methods or hold them out as a service of your own.

We will not publish your name, your profile or the outcome of your case as an example unless you agree in writing.

10. Liability

Nothing in this agreement limits or excludes liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or any other liability that cannot legally be limited or excluded.

Subject to that, our total liability to you arising out of a service order, whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise, will not exceed the greater of £1,000 or twice the fee for that service order.

Subject to the liabilities that cannot legally be limited or excluded, we are not liable for loss of profit or loss of goodwill, except so far as that loss is a foreseeable result of our failure to perform the accepted service with reasonable care and skill. A decision by Google is not, by itself, that failure.

11. Complaints

Write to contact@profilerelaunch.com, describe the order and what you would like us to do, and we will review the complaint against the record of the service. This does not remove any right to bring a claim.

12. Ending the service

You may cancel monitoring under the cancellation terms in this agreement. There is no cancellation fee.

Either of us may end the service by written notice if the other materially breaks this agreement and does not put the breach right within 14 days of a notice asking for it to be put right, or if the other cannot pay its debts as they fall due.

Ending monitoring does not end a different service order. Clauses that should continue after the service ends, including clauses on sums already earned, confidentiality, intellectual property, liability and governing law, continue to apply.

13. Governing law

This agreement, and any dispute or claim arising out of it or in connection with it, is governed by the law of England and Wales. The courts of England and Wales have jurisdiction over that dispute.

Those choices do not remove a right, which the law does not allow us to take away, to bring proceedings in another court.

14. Other terms

We will change this agreement for an order you have already accepted only by agreeing a replacement of this agreement with you. A change of our published prices or website wording does not change an agreement you have already accepted.

If a court holds that part of this agreement cannot be enforced, the rest of it still applies. If we delay in using a right, that delay is not a waiver of the right.

This agreement and the accepted quotation are the whole agreement between us for the service they describe. They replace earlier discussions about that service. They do not limit liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

A person who is not a party has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce this agreement.
